

In 1974 Diana started playing bridge in Swansea Bridge Club. She very quickly reached a high standard – representing Wales in the Lady Milne in partnership with Blodwen Williams. Not only was she a top-class player, but was an invaluable administrative asset to the Welsh Bridge Union – Secretary of Swansea Bridge Club, Treasurer and Chairman of the West Wales Bridge Association in the 1990's, and WBU President in 1999-2000. Later she was appointed as both Chairman, followed by President of Swansea Bridge Club.
